DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-12 are presented for examination.

Sequence Rules

2. This application contains sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences set forth in 37 CFR 1.821(a)(1) and (a)(2). However, the nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosure contained in this application does not comply with the requirements for such a disclosure as set forth in 37 C.F.R. 1.821 - 1.825, because a computer readable form of the "Sequence Listing" has not been filed with this application. An initial computer readable form must be submitted as required by 37 C.F.R. 1.825(d) and a statement that the content of the paper and computer readable copies are the same and, where applicable, include no new matter, as required by 37 C.F.R. 1.821(e) or 1.821(f) or 1.821(g) or 1.825(b) or 1.825(d).

The applicant is encouraged to call (703) 308-4216 regarding any inquiry concerning rules interpretation, (703) 308-4212 for CRF submission help, and (703) 308-6856 for PatentIn software help.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to because of the defects noted on the enclosed Form PTO-948. Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 12 recites "administering an effective amount of an enzyme". This phrase implies in vivo administration to a subject/patient/animal, but, since the preamble refers only to a method of hydrolyzing phosphate bonds and the remainder of the claim is silent as to what the enzyme is administered, this phrase renders the instant claim indefinite.

Conclusion

6. Claims 1-11 are allowable over the prior art of record. A diligent search of electronic patent and scientific literature data bases revealed no prior art that either teaches or suggests: 1) polynucleotides that encode enzymes described by SEQ ID NO: 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, or 36; 2) polynucleotides described by SEQ ID NO: 19-27, 37-41, 43, 45, 47, 49, 51, or 53; 3) vectors and transformed host cells comprising these polynucleotides; 4) the polynucleotides of ATCC Deposit No. 97379; 5) polypeptides described by SEQ ID NO: 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, or 36; 6) polypeptides that are 70% identical to the polypeptides described by SEQ ID NO: 19-27, 37-41, 43, 45, 47, 49, 51, or 53, and 7) methods of producing these enzymes. Thus, the polynucleotides, vectors, host cells, methods and polypeptides of the instant claims are free of the prior art.
